Miss Moreau is Married In Church-On-The-Hill

In a candlelight ceremony at Immanuel Church-on-the-Hill in the chapel of the Virginia Theological Seminary, Miss Cynthia Cortney Moreau, daughter of Colonel USMC (Ret.) and Mrs. Jean Wilfred Moreau of Alexandria was married on June 16 to Mr. Tyler David Phillips. The bridegroom is the son of Col. USAF (Ret.) and Mrs. Arnold Thielens Phillips of St. Louis, Mo., formerly of Alexandria.

The eight o'clock in the evening ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Coleman McGhee Jr. The parish organist, Mr. G. Orville Trondson, played the traditional wedding music. The Altar, illuminated by a pair of seven-branch candles, was decorated with white stock, regal lilies and magnolia leaves.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore a gown of white organza over peau de soie. The sholded bodice with elbow length sleeves was elaborately appliqued with re-embroidered Alencon lace and beading. Her bouquet was of phalaenopsis orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Fredrica Brawley, maid-of-honor, was attired in a floor length dress of yellow linen, fashioned in the empire style. The high waistline was banded with appliques of yellow daisies and green corded satin. The bridesmaids, who wore dresses identical to those of the honor attendant, were: Miss Patricia Adkins of Danville, Va.; Miss Karen Applegate of Alexandria; Miss Patricia Moore of Louisville, Ky.; and Mrs. Peter D. Sayer of Alexandria. All carried bouquets of yellow majestic daisies and ivy.

Mr. R. Taylor Cosby Jr., of Alexandria was the bridegroom's best man. Ushers were Mr. Arnold T. Phillips Jr., and Mr. Lundford Phillips, brothers of the bridegroom, Mr. Philip S. Moreau, brother of the bride, Mr. Duane P. Love and Mr. Paul V. Zehuss of Alexandria, and Mr. Martin H. Baumberger of San Diego, California.

After the ceremony, Col. and Mrs. Moreau entertained for the wedding guests with a reception at the Army Navy Country Club, where dance music was provided by Devron. Mrs. Moreau received guests in a dinner dress of peacock blue chiffon taffeta highlighted by sea-green panels and set off by a corsage of green cym bidum orchids. Mrs. Phillips wore a dinner dress of sea blue crepe with satin trim, and a white orchid corsage.

For her wedding trip to Florida the new Mrs. Phillips chose a two-piece suit of yellow linen with white accessories. The bride was graduated from Hammond High School and from Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia. She teaches in Prince William County. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James H. Stewart of Knoxville, Tenn., and of the late Mr. and Mrs. Oscar F. Moreau of Manchester, N.H.

Mr. Phillips is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tyler Davis of Clearwater, Fla., and of Mrs. Thielens Phillips and the late Mr. Phillips of Chicago, Ill. He was graduated from St. Stephen's School for Boys and attends Lynchburg College.

Among the out of town guests present for the occasion were: The bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Thielens Phillips of Chicago, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Fred D. Beans of Annapolis; Capt. James S. Gray Jr. USN of Norfolk, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Cline of Scarsdale, New York; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver F. Johnson and daughters of Princeton, N.J.; Mrs. Howard J. Scaife and daughter Laura Carley of Hinsdale, Ill.; Mrs. William Barstow and daughter, Lorraine, of North Tarrytown, N.Y.
